

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1884.

THE OFFICIAL COUNT.

The Result of the County Canvass.

The official board met at the court house last Tuesday to canvass the vote of the county. Owing to a delay in securing returns from some of the townships the board were unable to complete the canvass Tuesday, and adjourned over until yesterday morning, and finished their work in the forenoon. The vote on electors is divided so as to show the relative strength of the two parties. Excepting Field and Flanders the vote for the Fusion electors was 888 each. On the state ticket it is evident that there was more or less slipping done. Outside of the county ticket Charles S. Hampton received the highest vote, 914; McNamara, for State Senator, coming second, with 910 votes to his credit; Spencer O. Fisher, for Congress, third, 904; and Uncle Josiah, for Governor, fourth, with 902.

Election Notes.

Democratic papers are busy selecting a cabinet for Cleveland.

It seems to be pretty well established that the Illinois Legislature will be a tie on joint ballot.

California made a clean sweep and elected six Republican congressmen by majorities ranging from 120 to 4,630.

Ex-Senator Conkling has been retained by the Democrats to act in proceedings that may arise in the Presidential contest.

A good many of the Democratic roosters look as though they had been in the cellar waiting for twenty-four years, and had now crowed a little prematurely.

Returns demonstrate that in counties in Iowa where Speaker Carlisle expounded his tariff views during the campaign the Republican gains have been unusually heavy.

The Republican state committee of New York claim to be able to produce over 2,000 affidavits of persons who voted for Butler, whose votes were counted, as the record shows, not for him but for Cleveland.

The people of Ottawa Kan., Saturday night hung St. John in effigy and placed over the gibbet a card bearing the inscription: "The Big Four—Judges Iscariot, Benedict Arnold, Jefferson Davis, John P. St. John."

The evening of the election the New York World claimed Cleveland's election in New York by 60,000 majority. The next day it dropped to 5,497. It continued to drop about 1,500 per day until it reached 1,100 and then began to shout "Beware of fraud," "Cleveland is elected."

When the vote is honestly canvassed, without regard to the man it elects, the people will shake hands over the chasm and resume business. The country is too full of brave, honest and patriotic men to permit anything to destroy confidence in the perpetuity of Republican institutions or more than momentarily turn aside the happiness, peace, and prosperity of the country.

The National American Prohibition organ says: "The St. John people have succeeded in putting the party in power which is pledged not to vex the dramseller. The Prohibitionists have put their worst enemy into power, and now they have absolutely no political influence which is worth anything to them selves or to any party. They can get no legislature to submit prohibition except through the party they have just defeated." Prohibitionists begin to realize the great result they accomplished.
